

At Passport Control

1 Warm Up Work with a partner.

- When did you last show your passport?

2 Conversation Practice with a partner.

Scene: Leslie is at passport control at Brisbane Airport.

Officer: Good morning. Could I see your passport please?
Leslie: Yes - here you are.
Officer: Thank you. What is the purpose of your visit?
Leslie: Erm, I'm here on holiday.
Officer: I see. Where are you staying?
Leslie: I'm staying at the Trent Hotel.
Officer: How long are you staying in Brisbane?
Leslie: For two weeks.
Officer: Thank you very much. Have a good day.

3 Check! Cover the text. Ask and answer these questions with your partner.

- 1) Why is Leslie in Brisbane?
- 2) Where is she staying?
- 3) How long is she staying?

4 Role-playing #1 Use these role-play cards, and have conversations with a partner.

Suggested Teaching Method

This worksheet has lots of role-play practice for students travelling overseas.

- 1 The opening question introduces the topic, and lets you find out how much your students know. You can ask students to cover the text before speculating on the picture. Students should work in pairs. Elicit some answers, but don't correct mistakes at this stage.
- 2 Follow the instructions. Students should practise once, and then change roles. Encourage the students to look up and make eye-contact with each other when speaking.
- 3 Follow the instructions. Students should work in pairs. If you prefer, students can write the answers to the questions on the worksheet.

Write on the board when eliciting the answers. You could then test your students by asking them to make the questions again, but without looking at the worksheet.

- 4 Draw the students' attention to the underlined parts of the conversation.
Demonstrate a conversation with a confident student. Be careful with the preposition used with the accommodation answer. (with friends/family, but at a hotel). Students should then work in pairs.
- 5 Again, demonstrate with a confident student. Place students in new pairs, and have them change partners regularly.
