Comments:

This class is able to focus for the whole class. They are strong all round students who have a deep understanding of the English language. They show excellent reading and speaking at this stage. This class now has a good learning environment. The sound issues in the past have been resolved and the boys often have great video and sound. They are bright, able to learn quickly and remember previously learned topics very well. This class shows excellent grammar skills. This class is strong in all areas though I would like to practice some writing projects with them. They are a pleasure to teach. We have attempted some basic TOEIC exercises and this class adapted to these tasks very well. The students respond well to challenges and are able to navigate their own way to the correct answers when handling complex grammar and situations using context.

Learning Focus:

We are focussing of advanced grammar. Students need to give correct answers and explain their answers too.
 We are focussing on adult conversations. Improving conversation skills by utilizing role play practice for daily scenarios.
 We are introducing and using advanced vocabulary in practical situations. Students should practice antonyms and synonyms.
 We are focussing on understanding writing passages. We are focussing on creating various writing passages.
 We are focussing on building conversations skills by talking about a different topic each week and utilizing roleplay.
 We are focussing on building knowledge about and undertaking the CEFR test. This is an important step moving forward.
 We are focussing on introducing some basic TOEIC and IELTS activities to prepare for future testing. Introducing new tasks.
 We are focussing on developing advanced writing skills through story and letter writing. We are practicing writing using correct verb tenses

Student's Strong Points:

This class is excellent at reading. They can read fluently with expression while recognizing punctuation and reading accordingly.
 This class has great grammar skills. This class completed grammar stage 4 with ease and can explain answers and grammar rules.
 This class is able to focus and work hard for long periods of time. They are motivated and hardworking and show improvement each week.
 This class asks questions when they don't understand something. This is extremely helpful moving forward and I encourage more of this.
 This class fully understands their work. Even when mistakes are made, they are often able to correct them themselves.
 This class has knowledge and experience with international tests such as the CEFR, TOEIC and IELTS.
 The students respond well to challenges and are able to navigate their own way to the correct answers when handling complex grammar and situations using context.

Areas to Improve:

I would like the students to review previous grammar and practice using the structures when speaking paying attention to verb tense.
 I would like the students to preview their curriculum and practice vocabulary. Students benefit from learning synonyms and antonyms.
 I would like this class to practice their writing skills with various writing activities in the future. Advanced vocabulary and formal writing.
 I would like this class to remain focussed. I want this class to try really hard on the unit reviews and achieve above 90 percent.
 I would like this class to keep focussed even though I know they have a lot of work from school.
